30. Suspension / Cancellation of Competitions

Adverse weather conditions may cause a delay or even cancellation to a club competition.

Weather conditions can deteriorate quickly on a golf course and when conditions become such, that the fair playing of the game is no longer possible or is dangerous, the Committee may suspend play.

Two Management Committee members or 1 management committee member and Green Keeper will in the first instance be responsible for initiating the suspension for up to 30 minutes to see if conditions improve.

When to Suspend Play?

A variety of bad weather conditions can be met by players on a golf course, but the decision on whether to suspend play or not sits with the Committee.

Suspension of play will be signalled by 1 loud long blast on the klaxon, all players are to mark their ball immediately and leave the course. St Athan ONLY operate immediate suspension of play.

If the course is still unplayable the competition is to be cancelled and all monies returned. If Cancellation of the competition occurs without suspension, this will be signalled by 3 short blasts of the klaxon.

Course Closure:

- If members of the greenstaff are not present, it is the responsibility of the Chairman of Green or nominated Committee members, operating to guidelines determined by the Course Manager/Head Greenkeeper. (Guidance on the conditions affecting course closure/opening are below).
- In the event of closure, notice(s) should be displayed in a prominent position(s) to inform members and should, where practicable, indicate the time of the next course inspection. • A log should be kept of dates of course closure and the reason. This provides factual evidence of 'problem areas' on the course possibly requiring rectification.
- The only reason for course closure should be adverse weather conditions.
- The Course Manager/Head Greenkeeper, or his deputy, has full authority for declaring the course closed and for its re-opening.
- In the absence of an authorised member of staff the decision to close or re-open the course will be taken by the Chairman of Green or nominated Committee Member.
- Update answerphone and Website.
- For instances where a delayed start is deemed appropriate (ie Visibility due to Fog) Email start sheet informing of delay (BRS) and update answerphone. Delay to be taken from time of 1st tee time (all players move on 1 hour).

30.1 Guidance on conditions:

Wind

The Committee should consider suspending play if several balls are moved by wind on different parts of the course within a relatively short period of time. If there are just a few balls moving due to the wind on one green, the Committee should not normally suspend play. The Rules of Golf also now help players to avoid getting penalties and being advantaged or disadvantaged if the wind blows the ball to a new position (see Rules 9.3 and 13.1d). Wind can be assessed by Greenkeepers or ANY committee member (including playing subcommittee)

Depending on the weather forecast the Committee may have the difficult task of deciding whether it is possible to resume play either the same day, next day or at another identified time or, if the round will be cancelled.

Water

The Committee should suspend play in stroke play when greens are flooded with most or all the area around a hole surrounded by temporary water and it cannot be removed. In such conditions the course would be considered unplayable, and it is only fair to suspend play.

In match play, the Committee should try and remove the water and if that is not possible, the Committee can suspend play or relocate the hole to an unaffected portion of the green.

Visibility / Fog i.e., 6th Green is un-visible from the 6th Tee. To be assessed by Greenkeepers or ANY committee member (including playing subcommittee).

Lightning

The very nature of lightning is unpredictable and therefore dangerous. The Committee should use whatever available resources it has to determine if there is danger from lightning and take actions it believes are appropriate. Lightning is one case where players may also stop play on their own accord if they believe there is danger from lightning (Rule 5.7). However, if a player does so, he or she must report to the Committee as soon as possible.

- Bunkers may be placed as GUR should all other areas of the course not fail to satisfy the above conditions. Individual bunkers may be made GUR at the discretion of the Greenkeepers prior to commencement of the competition.

30.2 Additional guidance for competitors:

Match Play

In match play, a round should not be cancelled once play has begun as both players in a match are playing in identical conditions, without one player having an advantage over the other. When the Committee has suspended play, they should resume play as soon as it is fair and reasonable to play again. When a match is being played by arrangement and the players have several days or weeks in which to play a match, the players may either resume play as soon as it is fair and reasonable to play again, or they may agree to resume play later. Whether play is being resumed on the same day or another day, it is important to remember that the match resumes play from where it was suspended rather than starting the match again.

Stroke Play

The Green Staff or Committee should only cancel a round when it would be unfair not to do so. When a round is cancelled, all scores and penalties during that round are cancelled, which would also include disqualification penalties. However, if a player is disqualified for serious misconduct (Rule 1.2) or for a breach of the Committee's Code of Conduct, that disqualification should not be cancelled.

If the Committee declares an suspension of play, all players must stop play at once and leave the course and must not make another stroke until the Committee resumes play.

A player must resume play from where he or she stopped play on a hole or, if between two holes, at the next teeing area, even if play is resumed on a later day. The player must be present at the location identified in (1) and ready to play:

- At the time set by the Committee for play to resume, and
- The player must resume play at (and not before) that time.

If the ability to resume play is delayed for any reason (such as when players in the group ahead need to play first and move out of the way), there is no breach of this Rule if the player is present and ready to play when the player's group can resume play.

31. Multi Day Competitions

In line with Wales golf and the R&A, at the discretion of the incumbent Chairman of Play and Playing subcommittee, competitions may be held across multiple days.

This option is not limited to cases where competitions have been suspended or cancelled.

Below are guidelines to support any a decision to allow single round competitions to extend over two or more days:

- Tees times are to be set in BRS and all competitors must play within the set times.
- Payment must be made before commencement of the round.
- Leaderboard is to be delayed via HDID until midday on the following / final day of the competition.
- Players may only enter the competition once and must indicate before play if their score is to count for the competition.
- Players who elect to play on the 2nd (or 3rd) day are permitted to play on the course in casual golf or in a different competition on the 1st (or 2nd) day without breaching the Rules of Golf, Rule 5.2 (Practicing on Course Before or Between Rounds).
- All players must play in the spirit expected and play with a minimum of 1 other competitor.
- Cards must be completed correctly and entered to the HDID system as per routine process.
- Repeat Non-submission of cards / scores will result in review and potential competition ban at the discretion of the Playing Committee.
- Course conditions are deemed fair and equitable across multiple days – in the same way am and pm starts on the same day are. It is acceptable for flagsticks and tee positions to be moved, grass to be cut, and the course to be otherwise maintained between any days of the competition. The effect on scoring will be minimal, as what is seen as 'difficult' to one player might not be so to another. Differences in weather conditions may also be evident, but such differences are part of the game of golf and must be accepted; these changes could happen during the course of a single day's play.
- If play on the 1st (or 2nd) day is suspended by the Committee due to adverse weather conditions, a player that has not completed their round is entitled to complete their round on the 2nd (or 3rd) competition day, as long as they do not play on the course between the two parts of the round.
